Name of Consultation	Date Rec'd	Details	Name of project lead	Status
Freeports	Feb	The government is working to boost economic activity across the UK, ensuring that towns, cities and regions across the country can begin to benefit from the opportunities of leaving the EU. As part of this work, the government aims to create up to 10 freeports in locations across the UK. These will have different customs rules than the rest of the country, that are innovative hubs, boost global trade, attract inward investment and increase productivity. In doing so, the government wants freeports to generate employment opportunities to the benefit of some of our most deprived communities around the UK. Deadline extended to 13 July.	Phill Adams (DCC) coordinating	Responded to
